TIHI POGLED NA ARS A SILENT GAZE AT ARS

KLAVDIJ SLUBAN
fotograf / photographer

Klavdij Sluban (1963) je francoski fotograf slovenskih korenin. Skozi svoje delo razvija rigorozen in celovit fotografski opus, ki ga napaja literatura, nikoli trenutni ali senzacionalni dogodki. Sluban se o sodobnem svetu sprašuje skozi močno osebno fotografsko izpoved, temačno a poetično. Njegovi projekti so dolgoročni in raziskujejo kraje, kjer sta čas in prostor strnjena: države z zgodovinskimi ranami, otoki ali zapori. Od leta 1995 dalje fotografira najstnike v zaporih po celem svetu. Svoja dela je razstavljal po celem svetu in za njih prejel številne nagrade – med njimi fotografsko nagrado Akademije za lepe umetnosti leta 2015 in nagrado Leica leta 2004. Zastopa ga Galerija Fotografija.

Razstava združi del opusa, ki ga je fotograf Klavdij Sluban ustvaril v okviru letne rezidence na programu Ars. Njegova popotovanja po radijskem zakulisju so organsko nadaljevanje umetniških ciklov, ki jih je ustvaril v prejšnjih letih. Z analognim fotoaparatom znamke Leica iz leta 1969 in tiho, skoraj neopazno prisotnostjo je Sluban zasnoval razstavo, ki razkriva njegov izrazito osebni pogled na različne procese ustvarjanja umetniškega radia. Rezidenca na programu Ars je v celoti njegov avtorski projekt. V njem raziskuje kako iz zaprtih in omejenih prostorov nastajajo brezmejne stvaritve, v tem primeru radijski eter. Gre torej za neke vrste homage radijskemu programu, ki ga redno posluša.

Klavdij Sluban (1963) is a French photographer with Slovene roots. The creator of a rigorous and coherent body of work that is nourished by literature, never by immediate or sensational events, he questions the contemporary world through a strongly personal photographic narrative that is dark yet poetic. His long-term projects explore places where time and space are condensed: countries scarred by history, islands, prisons and so on. Since 1995 he has been photographing teenagers in prisons around the world. He has exhibited worldwide and has won numerous awards for his work – among them the Prix de Photographie de l'Académie des Beaux-Arts in 2015 and the Leica Medal of Excellence in 2004. He is represented by Galerija Fotografija.

The exhibition brings together some of the images created by photographer Klavdij Sluban during his year-long residency at Radio Ars. His forays behind the scenes of radio are an organic continuation of the artistic series he has created in previous years. Using an analogue Leica camera from 1969 and acting as a silent, almost invisible presence, Sluban has created an exhibition that reveals his distinctly personal view of the various processes involved in the creation of arts radio. His residency at Ars is an entirely original project by the photographer. In it, he explores how infinite creations, in this case radio airwaves, emerge from closed and limited spaces. It therefore acts as a kind of homage to a radio station of which he is a regular listener.
